

PRESENTS

“Academia and Related Export Controls The Impact & Implications of Compliance and Non-Compliance”

Wednesday, September 16th, 2015, 1-3 PM

At the University of Phoenix®, Phoenix Main Campus, 1625 West Fountainhead Parkway, Tempe, AZ 85282

Join us for this free, engaging and informative dialogue facilitated by:

John Priecko, President and Managing Partner, Trade Compliance Solutions and Kevin Lombardo, Partner, Dentons

This unique program is designed specifically for academic institutions, labs, federally funded research and development centers and any entity doing work with foreign nationals and/or foreign persons. Anyone involved including compliance, legal, principal researchers, professors, faculty and students are invited and will benefit from the exchange.

This interactive/practical application focused outreach, education and training addresses key aspects of trade compliance and the consequences and costs of getting it right or wrong in the context of the research community and evolving Export Control Reform. It includes lessons learned using real world case studies and settlements with the U.S. Departments of Commerce, State and Justice.

REGISTRATION Email to: david.fitzgerald@phoenix.edu

Please include your full name, title, organization, phone number, mail and email address

Registration Deadline: Monday, September 14th

Questions may be directed to

David Fitzgerald, Campus Director, University of Phoenix®, 602-557-2387

This no cost session is presented in conjunction with the day-long programs “Evolving Export Controls Compliance and Enforcement,” September 17th, in Phoenix at the same location and September 15th, in Tucson, at the Tucson Electric Power (TEP) Auditorium (Second Floor), 88 East Broadway, Tucson, Arizona 85701.

“Program hosts, sponsors, partners and speakers support the goals of this event, but do not necessarily endorse the specific products, services or views of the participating individuals or organizations.”

(As of 8/14/2015)